Sports and Activities Guidelines: Glitter Girls, Sparkle Queens, Diamond Squad, Elite Diamonds must follow this Guideline.

- Dancers are expected to arrive ready and on time when there are no activities/sports conflicts. Other sport practices will not be excused however, games are excused with the following exceptions:
 - Dancers may not miss more than 2 weeks of practice in a row due to other sports/activities.
 - Dancers are required to be at all practices 2 weeks prior to the first two competitions and 1 week after the first two competitions. This guideline is in place so if there are critiques that need to be addressed in the routines, all dancers are at classes to make those changes.

Competition Expectations:

- Students may have up to 4 unexcused absences classes between August-May. Illness related absences are counted as excused. Vacations are considered Unexcused and count towards the 4 unexcused absences.
- Poor attendance can result in termination from competition.

Competition Class Etiquette

- No Gum
- Hair up and out of face
- Dress appropriately
- Wear required shoes
- Respect fellow dancers and teacher
- Follow the studio rules

Student Injury Policy

If a student is injured, they must notify the instructor and studio owner. When injured students are still required to attend classes to participate as much as they are able or to observe the routines. They are also required to attend the scheduled performances and tuition will still be required each month. However, if a student's injury takes them out of competing for the season, there may be exceptions to this and will be handled on a case-by-case basis. If you have concerns about this policy, please bring it up to the studio in a respectful manner so they can be discussed.
